

David S. Burgin is the Manager Emergency Preparedness (EP), Offsite and Response Programs at Public Service Enterprise Group (PSEG), Nuclear LLC which includes the Salem and Hope Creek Nuclear Generating Stations. David holds a Masters in Public Relations (2002) from Rowan University and two undergraduate BAs (1982) in Communication and Education from Rowan University. David did his Master's thesis on public and political opinion surrounding the Salem and Hope Creek Nuclear Generating Stations and has been published several times addressing nuclear power plant emergency planning standards and joint information systems. David also graduated from the Southern New Jersey Leadership Institute at Rutgers University and currently serves on Rowan University's Foundation Board. David also assisted in the several Rowan University Job and Facility searches.

In addition to David's 30 plus years of EP experience and five-plus years of public affairs (federal, state and local) experience, David's professional affiliations are as follows: Nuclear Energy Institute (NEI) EP Working Group, NEI Joint Information System Task Force, EP and Security Communications Forum and Training Program Instructor, Risk Informed Task Force and past Pandemic Working Groups; Institute of Nuclear Power Operations (INPO) EP Peer Advisory Team, EP Working Group, EP Training Working Group, and past Fukushima and Pandemic Advisory Teams; Nuclear Regulatory Commission Region I EP Regional Utility Group; Delaware Emergency Management Agency (DEMA) Industry Representative; New Jersey State Police (NJ), Office of Emergency Management (OEM) and NJ Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Nuclear Engineering Industry and Licensee Representative; Salem County Emergency Services Emergency Coordinators (EC) Group; Cumberland County OEM EC Group; Gloucester and Salem County Critical Infrastructure Security Initiative; PSEG Nuclear Safety Review Board, PSEG Emergency Managers Forum along with assisting PSEG's Early Site Permit Nuclear New Build Project and Fukushima Programs.

Past and present business and volunteer affiliations are listed as follows: PSEG Political Action Committee; Navy Recruiting District Philadelphia Recruiting District Assistance Council, President Class of 2016 United States Air Force Academy NJ Parent Association; Stand Up For Salem Main Street Board of Directors; Board of Directors Southern NJ Chapter American Red, Southern New Jersey Chamber of Commerce (Environment and State Government Affairs Committees), Southern New Jersey Development Council (Chair Economic Development and Environment Committee), Delaware Chamber of Commerce (Environmental Affairs Committee), Salem County Chamber of Commerce (Chair Government Affairs Committee and Past Board of Directors), New Castle County Chamber of Commerce (Legislative Affairs Committee), Cape May County Chamber of Commerce, Gloucester and Salem County Employer Legislative Committee, Bridgeton Chamber of Commerce (Government Affairs Committee), Vineland Chamber of Commerce (Public Affairs Committee), and Millville Chamber of Commerce (Public Affairs Committee); and the Board of Directors the Southern NJ Boy Scout and Girl Scout Councils (Board of Directors).

David lives in Mantua Township, NJ where he currently serves on the Clearview Regional School District Board of Education and previously served on the Mantua Township Board of Education and Sewell School Based Planning Committee, coached travel soccer, officiated USA Swimming and Tricounty aquatic events and lives with his very tolerant and understanding wife Lisa. David also has three wonderful young kids Brighid, Gunnar, and Pierce who along with Lisa, take up the rest and best part of his life through academics, charity, community service, military service, sports, music and theatre.

