Glassworks Issue 19 Launch Reading

Thursday, 10/24, 6:30-8:30pm
301 High Street West, Art Gallery

Glassworks, the literary magazine of Rowan University's Master of Arts in Writing program, is pleased to announce the publication of Issue 19. The new issue includes poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, and artwork by emerging writers and artists from across the country. A reception and reading is scheduled for Thursday, October 24th with a reception and reading at 6:30 p.m. in the Rowan University Art Gallery, 301 West High Street, Glassboro. Local authors Laura Fiorentino and Alison Lubar, both featured in Glassworks, will read selections of their work. Glassworks editors, comprised of students in the graduate course Editing the Literary Journal, will also read from Issue 19. Free coffee and cookies will be served. Read Issue 19 online now at <http://www.rowanglassworks.org/> Print copies are also available to order through Glassworks' website and will be available to purchase at the reading.
